

Pity. It's 100% curable. Chloe was born with spina bifida, which affects her ability to walk.

At Gillette Children's, she and her family find world-renowned pediatric specialists who are advancing new treatments and surgeries to help change the way Chloe sees the world. And the world sees Chloe. Learn more at curepity.org.